

RSVP Volunteer Opportunities

We have many openings for Retired Senior Volunteer Program participants in a variety of settings.

A sampling of RSVP services ...

- Bookkeeping
- Budget Counseling
- Call shut-ins
- Fill orders at area food pantries
- Help at bloodmobiles
- Help in offices
- Help in preschools and Headstart
- Help with activities at nursing and retirement homes
- Keep our parks clean and manicured
- Knit or crochet items for needy babies and children
- Mentor youth
- Performing Short Skits for schoolchildren
- Prepare bulk mailings for nonprofits
- Read to children
- Repair homes and build ramps
- Sew lap robes, bibs and gowns for nursing home residents and the homebound
- Sing and play musical instruments
- Staff the Angel Trees
- Staff the hospital gift shops and information desks
- Teach computers to seniors
- Transport people to doctor visits, the grocery store and more
- Tutor adults and children
- Visit nursing home residents
- Work in libraries -- shelving books, entering data or holding book sales
- Wrap gifts

If you would like more information about the volunteer positions available please email us at RSVP@hopesi.org or call 812-948-1815. We can help you find a volunteer position that complements your own interests and abilities.

RSVP is a program of Hope Southern Indiana

RSVP Office Location: 1307 E. Elm Street, New Albany, IN 47150

Updated July 2016